DETROIT HISTORICAL MUSEUM SEEKS SUPER BOWL XL

1/26/2006

DETROIT -- The Detroit Historical Museum is looking for memorabilia from Super Bowl XL and all the related events taking place from Ford Field to all across Southeastern Michigan.

Whether you're an event organizer, corporate sponsor, or someone attending the vast array of parties and special events currently scheduled all over town, the Museum wants to capture and preserve as much of the history-making flavor of Super Bowl XL as possible for future generations.

For information on how to donate items, please contact Marianne Weldon at (313) 297-8391 or via e-mail at weldonm@hist.ci.detroit.mi.us.

During Super Bowl Week, the Detroit Historical Museum, located at 5401 Woodward Ave. (corner of Kirby) in Detroit's Cultural Center area, is open to the public Wednesday through Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday Noon to 5 p.m. Admission is $5.00 for adults, $3.00 for seniors (60+) and students and youth ages 5-18, $3.50 for college students with a valid college ID card, and free for children ages four and under. Wednesdays are $2.50 admission days for all visitors. Permanent exhibits include the famous Streets of Old Detroit, Frontiers to Factories, The Motor City, and The Glancy Trains. For more information, call (313) 833-1805 or check out our website at www.detroithistorical.org.
